Chapter 1: Introduction

Philosophy

The purpose of the Elementary Battle of the Books program is to encourage reading by all students at the elementary school level. Students, regardless of ability, are exposed to quality literature representing a variety of literary styles and viewpoints by prominent authors in the area of young adult literature. The game format creates interest and excitement in reading. Through the fun and excitement of the competition, students improve reading skills, mature in their choices of reading materials, and acquire a broader knowledge base. Even during the height of the competition, students and coaches should remember that the goal is to READ, not necessarily to win!

History

North Carolina's Battle of the Books can be traced back to a public radio program in Chicago in the 1940s originated by Ruth Harshaw. Librarians exposed to the original show reconstructed the game to encourage reading today.

Michael Leonard, an Illinois native, first introduced the contest in Onslow County when he accepted the position of Children's Librarian for the Onslow County Public Library. His rationale for placing it at the sixth grade level was the dearth of activities in the public library and in the public schools for this aged child. In 1981, Onslow County Public Library sponsored the first North Carolina Battle of the Books contest for sixth graders.

The North Carolina Association of School Librarians assumed sponsorship of Battle of the Books in 1991. In 2000, the North Carolina School Library Media Association (NCSLMA) became a sponsor of Battle of the Books, and independent schools became a region for competition. The formation of an Elementary Battle of the Books committee began in 2010. At the current time, there will only be local and regional battles.
Chapter 2: Organization

Elementary Battle of the Books is organized locally by the participating school District and regionally by a regional committee.

As such, we seek to further the mission of promoting the highest quality of library and information services and public access to information to school library media professionals in the state of North Carolina. In this role, we sponsor programs such as the Elementary Battle of the Books as a service to our constituents: school library media coordinators and the students in their individual school districts. Chapter 4: State Elementary Battle of the Books Rules

1. A team will consist of a maximum of 12 members with 6 members allowed to play during a round. There will be no minimum number of players, and substitutions will be allowed between rounds only. (Please refer to General Guidelines.)

2. The coordinator will decide the process who receives the first question for each round. (For example, bracketed team list first, etc)

3. A round will consist of a maximum of 12 questions.

4. The coaches will accompany their teams and sit in the designated seats while their teams are competing. Except for tent cards and team posters, team members may not carry any materials into the designated competition area.

5. The moderator will read each question once and will repeat it once upon the request of the team member assigned the question. (The clock will continue to run while the question is repeated). Note: Acknowledge the beginning and end of a quotation in a question.

6. The moderator will say the team member's name, state the question, and repeat the team member's name to start the time. Once a team member has been designated to answer the question, 20 seconds will be allowed to start the answer. The questions will be answered by team members in sequential order. The person answering may get help from his/her teammates within the 20 second time limit, but he/she may not confer until the moderator repeats the team member's name a second time. Once the answer has begun, no more conferring is allowed and a complete answer must be given.
   a. If any coach or member of a team confers or appears to confer at an inappropriate time or displays unsportsmanlike conduct, the team will receive a warning from the judges (see Appendix H). Each team will receive only one warning for the day not per room or round.
   b. Additional offenses will result in the offending team forfeiting its opportunity to respond.
   c. The question will be read again and addressed to the next player in sequence on the opposing team as a rebound question. (Time will be 10 seconds and score for a correct answer will be two points).

7. Two (2) points will be awarded for each correct book title as it appears on the official booklist. Judges will disregard articles such as “a,” “an,” and “the” at the beginning of all titles. However, articles within the title including subtitles must be correct. (For example, A Dog’s Life: The Autobiography of a Stray. “A” at the beginning of the title can be omitted, but “the” must be said and correctly.) One (1) bonus point will be awarded for the name of the author as it appears on the official booklist. (For example, Pam Munos Ryan would need to be said or Sharon Draper.) A team cannot earn bonus points for the author's name unless the title has been stated correctly.
8. If a team fails to answer the question correctly within the allotted time, the question will be read again and addressed to the next player in sequence on the opposing team, who will have 10 seconds in which to begin the answer. The second team offered the question cannot confer until the question has been addressed to them or the team will forfeit its opportunity to respond. Points can only be earned for the title. The play will resume with the next question being directed to that same player.

9. Each team will compete with all other teams. The team having the highest cumulative score at the end of all rounds will be declared the WINNER. In the event of a tie, the tiebreaker rule will apply.

10. The tiebreaker round will consist of a maximum 12 questions. Scoring will start at zero. Rounds will continue until a winner is determined. If more than two teams are tied, each team will play each other, and the team with the highest cumulative score at the end of play will be the winner. (Points are not added to the cumulative scores from the preliminary rounds).

11. Conferences between team members and their coaches will be prohibited during rounds. However, conversation will be allowed during the interval between rounds and at scheduled breaks.

12. Challenges (to questions, answers, procedures, or time) will be handled in the following manner:

   a. A team member/coach will raise his/her hand and call out "TIME" immediately following the action to be challenged and before the question is redirected or the next question is asked. Only team members and designated coaches will be allowed to challenge.

   b. Coaches can only challenge procedural issues (i.e., time, scoring, rotation), not question content.

   c. Participating team members may challenge procedural issues and content of the question directed to their team.

   d. Challenges should not be based solely on pronunciation of title or author.

   e. The Judge will quietly confer with the team and present them with a challenge form. (See Appendix F). Do not start time at this point.

   f. If a team challenges the correct answer that has been provided, the team will be given three minutes to locate verification. Timing should begin when the team is given the book listed on the challenge form and the judge says, “BEGIN TIME”.

      ● If verification is found, the points will be awarded.

      ● If verification cannot be found in the allotted 3 minutes, the question will be redirected to the opposing team and play will resume.

      ● During the verification process, the challenging team may confer. There should be No Talking, conferring, or appearance of conferring by the opposing team.

      ● Once the judges have reached their decision, the judge will relay the form to the moderator who will then announce the challenge and decision to the audience, and the battle will resume.

13. THE JUDGES’ DECISION IS FINAL.
14. If there is audible prompting from the audience, the question will be disqualified.

15. There will be no entering or exiting the competition area during a round.

16. No videotaping is allowed.

17. To prevent distractions during the competitions, photographing is permitted before and after the competition but not during the competition.

18. Cell phones and all electronic devices must be turned off during the competition. To protect the integrity of the competition, team members should not have cell phones or any electronic device at any time during the competition.
Chapter 5: Appendices

Appendix A: Guidelines for Question Preparation, Use, and Acquiring Questions

Overview for Question Preparation

1. After the book list is finalized by the State Elementary Battle of the Books Committee, books are assigned to State Elementary Battle of the Books Committee members for reading and preparing questions.
2. Questions must be typed in the following format:
   - Question: In which book ...
   - Title:
   - Author:
   - Page number:
   - Book format:
3. Questions must be submitted to the State Elementary Battle of the Books Committee by the indicated date to be edited, duplicated, and distributed.
4. District and regional level participants in the Elementary Battle of the Books program will utilize questions provided by the State Elementary Battle of the Books Committee. The quality of questions is most important to good "battles." To maintain the integrity of the questions and the yearly competition, questions will not be distributed following the competition. Likewise, videotaping of the competition will not be allowed.
5. Practice and school level questions will be the responsibility of school coaches, and will not be supplied by the NCSLMA State Elementary Battle of the Books Committee.

Guidelines for Writing Questions

1. Begin each question with "In which book…"
2. Use present tense, if possible, and correct grammar.
3. Character names and names of major setting locations cannot be used. Proper names of places remote to a setting can be used. Example, if the main character lives in Georgia but has always wanted to visit Italy, the question could read: "In which book does a character save money to visit Italy?"
4. The pronouns “he”, “she”, “his”, or “her” may be used in writing questions.
5. Type the title and author as they appear on the official book list.
6. Type the page number for the answer.
7. Avoid using words from the title.
8. Refrain from obvious questions.
9. Avoid questions that can be answered by more than one title.
10. Review each question to ensure all the criteria have been met (Are questions clear, concise, and correct)?
11. Do not use information written by people other than the author. Epilogues, prologues, and notes written by the author will be used to write questions.
Suggested Use of Practice Questions

1. Type each question on an individual 3" by 5" card and file cards by book title.
2. Prepare question packets with a blank card on top for documenting which teams have completed a set.
3. Prepare a Elementary Battle of the Books center to encourage individual use.

Procedures for Acquiring Questions

The Regional Coordinator or designee shall:
- receive questions;
- distribute questions to District Level Coordinators; and
- discuss the policies and procedures associated with receiving, distributing, and securing questions.

Receiving Questions
- Questions will be delivered electronically via e-mail to the Competition Coordinator or designee.
- Competition Coordinators that are coaches must complete the Desigee Identification Form and email it to the designated State committee member.
- Fill in the Competition Coordinator or designee information on the District Level Question Request Form before sending it out.
- Forward a copy of the District Level Request Form to each District Level Coordinator.
- Completed Question Request forms should be submitted to the person designated on the appropriate form.

Distributing Questions
- The State Committee will distribute questions to the District Level Coordinator.
- Individual schools that are not part of a large school District (2 or more schools) and will not participate in a District level competition and will NOT receive District level questions.
- Questions may not be used for practice or any other purpose except the competition.
- The number of rounds sent will be based on the requested amount on the Question Request Form.
- The questions will be sent at least one week prior to the competition date listed on your Question Request Form.

Appendix D: Challenged Title Guidelines

Suggested Guidelines for a Challenged Elementary Battle of the Books Title

The NCSLMA State Elementary Battle of the Books Committee has set high standards and employed exemplary professional procedures in its selection of Elementary Battle of the Books titles. Since participation in the program is voluntary, the following guidelines are suggested for handling a challenged title:

1. Follow the local unit's policies and procedures for reconsideration of materials.

2. If the local unit votes to remove the book, it may be eliminated from the list.

3. The school or unit is still eligible to participate in any competition.

4. If several units in an educational region eliminate the same title from the list, a regional decision should be made for retaining or deleting the title for the regional/cluster competition.

5. The NCSLMA State Elementary Battle of the Books Committee reserves the right to make the final decision for removing any title handled by local reconsideration committees from the statewide list.
